

The Real Superman

I know the Real Superman/ It's like I'm Batman/
So I don't need to pack a gat man/
I'm witness of Jehovah/ I'm his soldier/
That's why I keep a bible in my holster/
And I ride with Jesus Christ/ cause he Superfly/
And He Fly/ That's why he rise up to the sky/ 40 days later after he die/
He ride the invisible escalator/
I hope to ride it too/ So don't be a hater/
But I won't really know until this world is through/
So maybe I'll see you later/
He came down from Heaven to get spit on/
Just like Superman came down from Krypton/
But they didn't want to listen to him/
They was like "nail him on the hill outside Jerusalem"/
But he ain't stay dead/ He got up off the ground/
And 40 days later he left town/ To get his crown/
Like the Vision that's found/in the book of Daniel approaching the throne where myriads of angels surround/or Revelation where he throws the Devil down from heaven/
So now he threw Satan down to the earth already/
And that's one of the reasons your hood is gettin more worst and deadly/
This world is getting crazy/ Probably gonna be worst than some parts of Haiti/
In a minute/ Don't say I ain't pin it on the head/ Before I'm dead/
Listen to what I said/ Jesus' blood was red/ and he shed it for you/ So come through/
It's for you he bled/ So listen to what he said/
